Work Offered

The USTA is improving and constantly is looking for activities or actions that could benefit the academic community. One of them is the Actions of Internationalization At Home, where the university has obtained several positive experiences.

The International Affairs Office leads some of the current programs and wants to expand its academic / scientific offer. Taking on account that, the Director of the International Affairs Office (ORII for its acronym in Spanish) would like to have the support of an international student in order to work and create a Work Plan National Wide for the Internationalization At Home (the work plan will apply to the whole campuses from USTA) and the intern will have the possibility of travelling to each campus.
